	BREAKOUT A
01:21 PM - 02:22 PM	Gender Transformative Health Programming: Emerging best practices and common approaches This roundtable discussion features a diverse panel of experts who will share their experiences with emerging best practices and approaches to gender transformative programming in women and children’s health. Panelists answer key questions including: What is gender transformative change? What did we find in the research when writing the Gender Transformative Framework for Nutrition? What does a gender transformative approach to health programming look like in practice? What have we learned from our experience? As our gender transformative outcomes evolve, how do we ensure the implementation process keeps up?	Merydth Holte-McKenzie, World Vision Canada Jennifer Donville, CanWaCH Saifullah Chaudhry, Plan International Canada
	BREAKOUT B
01:21 PM - 01:37 PM	Data-driven Results: A practical guide for using a development database to improve programs. The session will guide you through the Project Explorer, an open access database resource that captures and shares the full spectrum of efforts in global health and gender equality with a link to Canada. Leveraging information and evidence generated directly from the sector, this database connects users with timely information and resources that are relevant to your work. This demo will showcase how data can be analyzed and visualized in order to improve programming, identify gaps, and inform policy and investments, in order to strengthen the health and rights of women, children, and their communities worldwide.	Imaeyen Okon, CanWaCH
